A fistic tread which the fans would like very much to see is a between Predicis McMullen, of Walter Obernesser's stable, and sh' Kennedy, who is handled by "Hank" Wood. When also it this on Saturday, "Hank" said that BioShullen would not it "Irish." "Hank" had challenged McStullen on Dehalf of onedy but Obernesser's by did not seem to want any farmer's game." Did you see McStullen on Friday might" also dry. "He got afraid as soon as he saw some of his own blood." What has McStullen to say to this?

A large number of local hockey enthusiasts took in the St. Patawa game in Toronto on Saturday night and they had the satision of seeing "Joe" Matte and "Mickey" Rosch, two former players, do some great playing. Each nothed a goal for the Pat's and Matte played an especially brilliant game. He scored goal single handed, working his way through the whole Ottawa.

Matte is looked on as a find for the professional ranks.
